Camp Director Bio

John Windham

Former College Coach

Before coming to Culver-Stockton College, Coach Windham served as head coach at Virginia Episcopal School, a college prep school in Lynchburg, Va., compiling a 96-57 career record. His teams were ranked in the top 10 in the Virginia Independent State Polls every season, and he was named conference coach of the year after the 2006-07 season.

Coach Windham also had a successful run at Rowland Hall-St. Mark's School in Salt Lake City, Ut. In five years, his program went from a last place team to a region championship and state semifinal appearance. His team was state-ranked in each of his last three years. He was voted Utah Coach of the Year after the '99-'00 and the '01-'02 seasons.

In addition, Windham also has experience at the pro level where he was a head coach in Sweden. In his first year at Linkoping, Sweden, Windham coached them to the southern division national championship and compiled a .700 winning percentage.

A native of Sterling, IL, and a graduate of Western Illinois University, Coach Windham brings many years of camp experience. He has worked many basketball camps throughout the US A and Europe.
